

Radio Home Page » KSL News » Local News » Stories

> Access News Archives

Listen Live

Join KSL Club

Win on KSL

Shows

Grant & Amanda
Doug Wright
Scott & Maria
Sean Hannity
Bill O'Reilly
Lars Larsen
Greenhouse
Movie Show
Travel Show
Utah Outdoors

KSL News

Local News
National News
Traffic
Weather
Sports
Health News
Stocks & Biz
Closer Look

Features

BYU Sports
Speaking on Biz
The Spoken Word
Teacher Feature
Medicine Today
Sound Bites

Programming

Station Info

Faces & Bios
Promotions
Station Events
Community Service
Advertise on KSL
Engineering
KSL History
Contact Us

Police Investigating Possible Abuse of Baby

A baby is in the hospital, and another is in state custody. As Sheriffs' investigators in Summit County try to learn how a one-year-old was badly injured. KSL Newsradio's Marc Giauque has more.

(Nov 18, 2003) --

KSL NEWSRADIO AUDIO BOX

 Police Investigating Possible Abuse of Baby: Listen to Audio

(Park City-AP) -- A one-year old is in intensive care with a severe brain injury and police are trying to figure out what happened.

James Molineux says he dropped his two children off at a Park City day care Friday morning and by 11 A-M he was called to the hospital because his son wasn't breathing.

Doctors say the baby was either severely shaken or received a strong blow to the head.

Summit County Sheriff's deputies are investigating the licensed home day care.

They are also investigating the boy's family.

The Division of Child and Family Services took the baby's three-year old brother into custody as standard procedure in possible abuse cases.

The day care has not returned calls.

The family says the baby might be paralyzed if he survives.

(Copyright 2003 by The Associated Press. All Rights Reserved.)

Don't C jus

Cho
YOU
blue

Your ch
Your pri
Your op

BlueCh

Regen
BlueCross E
of Ut
An Independent Li
Blue Cross and Blue S

©1993 KSL RADIO

KSL 1160
NEWSRADIO

EEO Public Inspection File

©KSL Radio, Salt Lake City UT

A Division of Bonneville International